2022-23 recipients

The following Housing Support projects were approved in 2022-23. Four organisations received funding for a total amount of $21,340.00.

Organisation	Project	Amount approved
Communify Queensland Ltd	The project will provide household items and furnishings to vulnerable individuals who are transitioning from homelessness into social and affordable housing, using an online voucher system ('Prezee'). The mobile support team from HART4000 (Communify) will have oversight of the spending, therefore allowing them to intervene and assist people if required. It is anticipated the online voucher system will empower individuals by enabling autonomy and choice, which aligns with HART4000's trauma-informed and empowering framework.	$9,000.00
4 Voices Global Limited	The project will assist vulnerable people with becoming more digitally connected by providing them with free mobile phones and SIM cards. 4 Voices will distribute the phones and SIM cards via their dedicated outreach services at four (4) various inner-city locations.	$4,800.00
The Trustee for The Salvation Army (QLD) Property Trust	The project will provide 27 facilitated workshops for vulnerable women focusing on connection, skills building, education, employment and community participation.	$4,700.00
139 Club Limited trading as 3rd Space	The project will provide practical financial support to assist vulnerable people with sustaining their tenancies.	$2,840.00

Zig Zag Young Women's Resource Centre Inc.	The project will deliver measurable outcomes for a minimum of 20 young women (and their accompanying children), who are experiencing homelessness and/or at risk of homelessness. The project will provide direct brokerage support in areas not covered under other Zig Zag funding agreements. Zig Zag will be able to support young women with the purchase of items that can include whitegoods, small household items, linen, groceries, bond, and initial utilities set-up. This project will compliment the current wrap-around services provided by Zig Zag, with the aim of achieving long-term positive outcomes, including tenancy sustainment for young women.	$10,000.00
