Dedicated to a better Brisbane

Permit information

Health and Community Parking Permits may be issued to health care practitioners, health service providers or charitable organisations for the purpose of visiting a resident to provide on-going personal care, support or assistance to that resident.

Health and Community Parking Permits are not allocated for the purpose of general staff or volunteer parking or for residents visiting the service.

Note: For short visits i.e. less than two hours, visitors are permitted to park in the majority of Council's Regulated Parking Areas without a parking permit. The exceptions are vehicles parked within the following sporting/event precincts where shorter time limits apply:

- Gabba, 15 minutes on event days,
- Lang Park, 15 minutes on event days,
- Ballymore, 5 minutes on event days,
- Queensland Tennis Centre, 1 hour on event days, and
- Robertson Macgregor, 15 minutes on event days.

Health and Community Parking Permits are:

- digital permits, linked to the vehicle registration number provided (do not need to display the permit in the vehicle)
- issued for 12 months from the date application is received, if approved
- valid in all Regulated Parking Permit Scheme Areas where signed parking restrictions indicate "resident permits excepted" or in unsigned kerbside locations where areawide Traffic/Parking Control Area parking time limits apply (all other road rules still apply)
- not valid for parking in the Roma Street Parkland precinct, South Bank area and in the suburb of Brisbane City.

Permits cannot guarantee access to on-street parking.

Eligibility

- Applicants must:
 - a) provide in-home care to residents who live in a Regulated Parking Permit Area, and
 - b) be registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) and supply AHPRA registration number, or
 - c) be a religious or charitable organisation listed in Council's Schedule of Fees and Charges Appendix A (or be registered with the Queensland Government as a charity and supply a CH number).
- Vehicles for permits must be currently registered in Queensland.

Allocation

- Each eligible individual healthcare professional may apply for one Health and Community Individual Parking Permit.
- Each eligible health or charitable organisation may apply for one or more Health and Community Organisation Parking Permits.

Health and Community Permit Terms and Conditions

- a. Health and Community Permits are for use by healthcare practitioners, health service providers or charitable organisations for the purpose of visiting a resident or a vessel occupier to provide on-going personal care, support or assistance to that resident or vessel occupier.
- b. Health and Community Permits are not allocated for the purpose of general staff parking or volunteer parking, or residents visiting the service.
- c. Boats, caravans, trucks, trailers, buses, tractors and vehicles restricted from parking under Brisbane City Council Local Law (Heavy and Long Vehicle Parking) 1999 are not eligible for Health and Community Permits.
- d. All Health and Community Permits remain the property of Council.
- e. Health and Community Permits are valid for the date/s specified on the permit.
- f. Allocation of a Health and Community Permit does not guarantee availability of on-street parking.
- g. Health and Community Permits are not restricted to a designated Regulated Parking Permit Scheme Area. The permit holder is permitted to park in all Regulated Parking Permit Scheme Areas.
- h. Health and Community Permits only exempt the nominated vehicle from:
 - (i) Signed parking restrictions where signs indicate "RESIDENT PERMITS EXCEPTED," or
 - (ii) Traffic/Parking Control Area parking time restrictions in unsigned locations
- i. All other road rules apply.
- j. Some streets may not have exemptions for residents, and therefore Health and Community Permits may not be valid for use on those streets.
- k. Health and Community Permits do not allow holders to park in designated statutory areas, such as clearway zones, loading zones, no stopping zones, bus zones or taxi zones.
- l. Health and Community Permits are not valid for parking in nominated precincts that Council has determined to be ineligible for the allocation of permits. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - (i) the Roma Street Parkland precinct;
 - (ii) South Bank; and
 - (iii) the suburb of Brisbane City.
- m. Health and Community Permit holders are strictly prohibited from:
 - (i) selling, transferring, assigning, leasing or otherwise disposing of any permit to any other person; and
 - (ii) allowing any other person to use a permit that has been issued to it in contravention of the Regulated Parking Permit Policy or the conditions of use of the permit.
- n. The permit holder is responsible for notifying Council to request cancellation of permits if:
 - (i) a permit holder disposes of a vehicle to which a permit applies; or
 - (ii) changes their residential address (if applicable); or
 - (iii) changes their business address (if applicable).
- o. Council may cancel issued Health and Community Permits where there is evidence permit holders have used permits contrary to conditions of use.
- p. Council, in its discretion, may decide to issue a Health and Community Permit if the criteria for the issue of that Health and Community Permit has been substantially fulfilled.
- q. All decisions are final.
